CYCLING IN THE HIMALAYAS – Biking in Nepal is a great fun

Sandwiched between the two most popular countries of the world, China and India, Nepal has one of the most mountainous areas in the world.

The best way to explore the Kathmandu Valley and around is on a mountain bike or cycling. It is called the Kathmandu valley rim biking trips. Nepal's diverse terrain is a mountain biker dream adventure come true. Earthbound Expeditions an award-winning adventure travel company offers Nepal Mountain biking trips an environmentally sound way of exploring this magnificent Himalayan country, its landscape, people, and living heritage.

WHAT MORE IS IN OFFER – a day or multi-day biking trips around Kathmandu valley?

There are plenty of drift roads and trails in Nepal to meet every mountain biker's wildest fantasy. Mountain biking is a fascinating way to travel the byways of the valley, visiting little-known villages, sacred groves and out of the way temples and monuments.

- Cyclists may go out for just the day or may spend two or three days, staying at the scenic view spots of Dhulikhel, Nagarkot, Kakani, or Daman.
- Longer tours go from Kathmandu all the way to the southern Terai regions, Pokhara, Ganesh Himal region of Chitwan National Park.
- Groups with experienced bikers can go to Langtang Valley or Throng-La, Mustang or even fly up to Lhasa, Tibet and mountain bike all the way back to Kathmandu via Everest base camp

We can stay at some best lookouts for viewing the mighty Himalayas from Dhaulagiri in the west to Everest in the east, so you won't be missing what is arguably the world's finest mountain scenery. In addition, the valley is also the historic center of Nepal, the place where the kingdom's rose and fell, palaces and temples were built and rebuilt and Nepalese art and culture were developed and refined.

MOUNTAIN BIKE TOUR

- A combination of superb dirt trails and a single track connect the abundance of temples, monasteries, and places making it a fascinating place to cycle.
