Muktinath Yatra Package Overview

Our Muktinath Yatra Package combines the visit to Popular temples in Nepal like Pashupatinath Temple, Manakamana Temple, Muktinath Temple along with other important Temples during sightseeing in Kathmandu and Pokhara. Muktinath is a sacred place both for Hindus and Buddhists. The lower Mustang region around the Kaligandaki river area is known as Mukti Kshetra, which means the “place of liberation or moksha”. The famous Kali Gandaki is the only river on earth that has natural “Saligram” black Rock Hindus consider as an incarnation of Lord Bishnu. We offer private and group Muktinath Tour Package from Kathmandu. Muktidham tour can be combined with Damodar Kunda tour.

Muktinath Temple tour Nepal:

Muktinath many refereed to as Muktidham is located at an altitude of 3,710 meters at the foot of the Himalayas near Thorong La mountain pass, Mustang, Nepal. You will have to pass through the deepest George of Kali Gandaki river leaving behind the Nilgiri and Dhaulagiri mountain range to reach Mukti Chetra (the area of salvation).

In the year 2018 Indian Prime minister Shree Narendra Modi jee also visited Muktinath Temple in Nepal.

Itinerary

Day 1

Kathmandu Arrival

Kathmandu Arrival, We come to pick you up at the Airport, Check in to Hotel and rest day.

Day 2

Sightseeing of Kathmandu

Do the sightseeing of PASHUPATINATH TEMPLE (UNESCO World Heritage Site): Situated 5 km east of Kathmandu, the temple of Lord Shiva is considered one of the most sacred Hindu shrines in the world. The two-tiered pagoda with golden roofs and silver doors houses the sacred linga, or phallic symbol, of Lord Shiva. Chronicles indicate the temple existed before 400 A.D. Near the Pashupatinath Temple on the banks of the Bagmati River lies Guheswari, where, according to mythology, a portion of Sati Devi, Lord Shiva's consort, fell when a grief-stricken Shiva wandered aimlessly across the earth carrying her dead body on his shoulders following her self- immolation. Later continue on the SWAYAMBHUNATH STUPA (UNESCO World Heritage Site) : Resting on a hillock 3 km west of Kathmandu, it is one of the holiest Buddhist Chaityas in Nepal. It is said to have evolved spontaneously when the valley was created out of a primordial lake more than 2,000 years ago. This stupa is the oldest of its kind in Nepal and has numerous shrines and monasteries on its premises. Later continue on the BOUDDHANATH STUPA (UNESCO World Heritage Site): Situated 8 km to the east of downtown Kathmandu, Bauddhanath is one of the most imposing landmarks in Kathmandu, visible as soon as you land at the Tribhuvan International Airport. It is the largest stupa in the Kathmandu Valley and is the center of Tibetan Buddhism. - Overnight at hotel. We can visit the Guheshowri Temple and also the Jalnarayan (sleeping Bishnu).

Day 3

Drive to Pokhara

After breakfast drive Pokhara, on the way if you wish can visit Manasadevi temple riding the cable car. Stay in Pokhara the beautiful lake city.
