Small group tour of North India: Rajasthan
This trip visits the best-known landmarks of Rajasthan, with their long history and impressive architecture, and gives you a taste of royal life.

An overland journey through the palaces and forts of Rajasthan
This Rajasthan tour visits Delhi, Mandawa, Bikaner, Jaisalmer, Jodhpur, Ranakpur, Udaipur, Pushkar, Jaipur, Agra (Taj Mahal) and Delhi.

Rajasthan, India
Rajputana is a land of bright colours. Its great forts and ornate palaces show the wealth and power of the Maharajas who ruled here for centuries. Decorated with distinctive frescoes and intricate miniature paintings, the palaces of Rajasthan are the lasting legacy of the Rajputs, one of India's most colourful ruling dynasties.

On this tour, you see the frescoes of Mandawa, take a camel ride at sunset from Jaisalmer, and visit the walled city of Jodhpur and the lake city of Udaipur. You follow in the footsteps of the Maharajas (kings) and stay in some of their former residences as you explore Rajasthan with Earthbound Expeditions.

You can combine this India tour with a tour of Nepal or Bhutan.
