Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar Overview

Multi-country tour

Multi-country tour

This tour visits some of the finest places in four countries of South-East Asia: Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Myanmar.

Over 21 days you explore the lesser-known sights of Vietnam, the history of Cambodia, Laos, and Myanmar, known as the Golden Land. You travel through historical and cultural heritage sites, ancient temples and pagodas, and natural landscapes, and see the way of life of the local people.

The tour begins in Myanmar, with visits to Yangon, Bagan, Mandalay, Ava, Amarapura, Sagaing, Heho, Inle Lake and Indein. You then fly to Cambodia to visit Siem Reap and the ruins of Angkor, ranked as the most impressive historical site in South-East Asia, and walk through dense tropical jungle along tree-lined paths.

The tour continues with a flight to Laos, a country that sees relatively few visitors. You take a boat along the Mekong River to visit the well-known Pak Ou caves near Luang Prabang, and then visit the three-tiered Kuang Si waterfall, about 29 km south of Luang Prabang.

The last country on the tour is Vietnam. You begin with a city tour of Hanoi, exploring the streets of the Old Quarter, modern art, the One Pillar Pagoda and the Fine Arts Museum. You then explore Halong Bay and Ho Chi Minh City.

Next you see the Mekong Delta and visit the Cu Chi tunnels, an extensive network of underground tunnels. A cruise on the Mekong River takes you to the floating markets and shows you the daily life of the people of the Mekong Delta.

This is the end of the 21-day Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos and Myanmar tour.
